The Wildling Tribe

Undertaking the following activities continued (please make sure to mark each one)

- outdoor cooking on an open fire, in a mud oven and using other primitive techniques
- building semi permanent and temporary structures from natural materials

I understand that the activities carried out during The Wildling Tribe sessions and events are in nature risky and pose an element of risk to my child, regardless of risk assessments and safety measures in place.

I agree I am responsible for my child's whereabouts and behaviour if I am attending with my child.

In the case of drop off sessions, I agree that if my child is acting in a way that puts themselves and others at risk despite support given my responsible adults, that I may be called to collect my child from the session in accordance with The Wildling Tribe risk assessments and policies.

I agree to provide my child with appropriate clothing and footwear, and in the case of not having these I agree to contact The Wildling Tribe to arrange a set of wellies and waterproofs for my child

I agree that parents of other children may be in attendance at sessions to support their children and that dropping off my child is a choice I have made.

I agree that in the case of staying with my child, I will respect everyone's individuality and differing needs and contribute to the welcoming and positive atmosphere we are attempting to create.
